

OHIO FIRST DISTRICT COURT OF APPEALS

Mother filed objections to the magistrate's decision, which the trial court overruled prior to adopting that decision. Mother now appeals, arguing in her sole assignment of error that the trial court abused its discretion in denying her motion for a continuance.

This court's jurisdiction is limited to the review of orders that are final and appealable and meet the requirements of R.C. 2505.02. Ohio Constitution, Article IV, Section 3(B)(2). The entry appealed from in this case addressed expenses that had been incurred by father, but it did not enter judgment on the two pending motions that were the subject of the scheduled hearing, specifically father's motion for contempt and mother's notice of intent to relocate. The entry continued those matters to a later date. Because the entry appealed from did not meet any of the requirements contained in R.C. 2505.02(B), it was not final and appealable.

Consequently, we dismiss this appeal for lack of jurisdiction.

A certified copy of this judgment entry shall constitute the mandate, which shall be sent to the trial court under App.R. 27. Costs shall be taxed under App.R. 24.
